Tour'N 64 Must Visit Destinations

Evansville

- LST 325 - WWII Landing Ship, Tank
The "Last of her Class," the LST 325 is an authentic WWII warship that landed on Omaha Beach on D-Day and went on to serve in the Pacific arena and the Korean War. She is the last navigable LST in operation today. Guided tours available.
- Reitz Home Museum
Renovated and restored to the authentic Victorian Era style and decor, the home museum is one of the finest examples of French Second Empire architecture in the country. Enjoy the warm evening glow of the Reitz mansion at Christmas with stained glass, Christmas lights and music.
- Evansville Museum of Art, History & Science
This remarkable museum holds art and exhibits unheard of for a city our size. Enriching through preservation, exploration, enlightenment and amazement. Explore space and rediscover our amazing planet in the stunning Koch Immersive Theater & Planetarium where you can see traditional planetarium shows as well as be immersed in full-dome cinema.
- The Evansville Wartime Museum
During WWII, our nation's military went into battle with airplanes, ships, tanks and munitions manufactured in Evansville. The museum is dedicated to showing and celebrating the stories of those who were there along with memorabilia they collect.
- Bosse Field
Currently home to the Evansville Otters, Bosse Field opened in 1915 and was the first municipally owned sports facility in the United States. Only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) are older than Evansville's Bosse Field. The box office hit "A League of Their Own" was filmed at Bosse Field in 1992.

Additional Tour' IN 64 Attractions: Tropicana Casino Evansville, Mesker Park Zoo & Amazonia Exhibit, Evansville African American Museum, Cooking Classes - Thyme in the Kitchen, and Aiken Theatre.

Visit French Lick West Baden

- French Lick Resort
Two historic hotels make up this grand resort boasting world-class spas, championship level golf, shopping, dining, stables, bowling on site. Complimentary shuttles allow guests to travel at their leisure.
 - Wilstem Wildlife Park
Up-close animal encounters allow guests to connect with nature during a truly unique experience where you can bathe an African elephant, feed the giraffes, meet Jeff Watson and his grizzly bears, interact with kangaroos and more on this 1,100-acre property that also offers ATV adventure tours, zip line tour and horseback riding.
 - French Lick Scenic Railway
All aboard for a nostalgic ride through the picturesque Hoosier National Forest, limestone outcroppings and the Burton Tunnel. Dinner train, themed excursions and scenic rides.
 - Scenic Nature Cruise
Relax aboard the Patoka Voyager as you explore the pristine shorelines of this 8,800-acre lake surrounded by 26,000 acres of state park. Look for eagles, osprey and other wildlife as you enjoy a lunch cruise or take in the southern Indiana sunsets during a dinner cruise or wine cruise.
 - Envision Designs
Take a complimentary factory tour, shop the unique products and learn the story of the First Chance Center. All proceeds benefit individuals with disabilities in surrounding communities.
- Additional Tour' IN 64 Attractions: Abbeydell Hall Dinner Theater, French Lick Winery & Spirits of French Lick, Bear Hollow Wood Carvers, French Lick West Baden Museum, Monastery Immaculate Conception

SoIN: Clark and Floyd Counties

- Culbertson Mansion State Historic Site
Take a guided tour of William Culbertson's luxurious mansion to learn about his family, life, and philanthropy. Events include an annual haunted house, periodic murder mystery dinners, and Clue parties for groups.
 - Schimpff's Confectionery
From the sweet smell of cinnamon and chocolate to the taste of delectable handmade candies, Schimpff's has been a regional treasure for more than 128 years. Groups can get a class in candy making at this family-owned attraction, explore sweet history in the candy museum and enjoy the old-fashioned soda fountain serving malts, milkshakes, and more!
 - MESA: A Collaborative Kitchen
Mesa is a state-of-the-art collaborative kitchen, featuring demonstrations by southern Indiana and Louisville established and aspiring chefs. The chefs prepare and demonstrate 3-5 courses while explaining the process, answering questions and talking with guests who have front-row seats. Guests purchase seats for the class online. At class, a beverage is paired with the chef's menu. With the emerging and dynamic restaurant scene, Mesa will be the culinary hub for Kentuckiana's highly-talented chefs to share their love for food with the public and each other. In addition to the collaborative space, Mesa also houses a bookstore, to-go cooking dinners, and a kitchen essential boutique.
 - The Falls of the Ohio State Park and Interpretive Center
Groups can see the largest exposed Devonian fossil bed in the world when river levels are low. Overlooking the Ohio River, the state-of-the-art Interpretive Center takes groups on an interactive timeline of the people, places and animals from 390 million years ago to today. There's no other place like it in the world! The site was recently added to the Lewis and Clark National Historic Trail.
 - Joe Huber's Family Farm & Restaurant
Spring to fall, Joe Huber's offers fresh air and delicious food. Take a hayride to the U-Pick fields and enjoy a down home country meal served family style.
- Additional Tour' IN 64 Attractions: Huber's Winery/Starlight Distillery, Uptown Art, Carnegie Center for Art and History, Maker 13, Howard Steamboat Museum

Derby Dinner Playhouse

- Derby Dinner Playhouse is proud to be one of the oldest and largest continually operating professional dinner theatres in the country. The legendary love triangle of King Arthur, Guenevere and Sir Lancelot hits the Derby Dinner stage in a soaring musical masterpiece! A smaller cast version of the fantastical Broadway classic.
- GREASE • March 31 - May 16, 2021
Dust off your leather jackets, pull on your bobby socks and take a trip back to 1959! Relive the magic, music, and romance of this popular musical.

Corydon

- Historic Tours
Established in 1808, the town of Corydon served as Indiana's first state capitol from 1816 to 1825. This history is palpable when you walk downtown Corydon's storied streets, with most of the buildings dating to the 1800s. Tour The First State Capitol building, governor's headquarters, and The Harrison County Discovery Center.
- Soft Adventure
Below the rolling hills, majestic forests, and winding Blue River lies Indiana Caverns and Squire Boone Caverns & Village. Guided tours take you deep into our greatest natural treasure where you can walk alongside underground streams, investigate captivating cave formations, discover fossils, and observe fascinating plant and animal life hundreds of feet below the earth's surface.
- Zimmerman Art Glass Factory
See how three generations of craftsmanship is put into practice as they create handmade art glass items before your eyes.
- Wineries
You'll find 3 wineries nestled throughout the lush foothills of Harrison County: Best Vineyards Winery and Distillery, Indian Creek Winery, and Turtle Run Winery. Each invite visitors for tastings, tours, or conversation with a fellow wine enthusiast.
- Historic Downtown Corydon Shopping
Antique shops are very popular in the historic downtown Corydon shopping district, and the belle of the antique store ball is the Red Barn Antique Mall. This store houses over 6,000 feet of antiques on three floors! If antiques aren't your thing you will also find bookstores to wine cellars to Vera Bradley and Simply Southern.

Additional Corydon Attractions: Caesars Southern Indiana Casino, White House Candy, Themed experiential lunches, Harrison County Artisan Center, Golf Shores Fun Center.
